Two Tots Burned to Death.

Two babes, seven months and two years old, respectively, were burned to death when fire destroyed the home of John Van Court, a farmer residing 3 1/2 miles northwest of Nashville, in Barton county Sunday night. An oil lamp is believed to have been upset by the oldest child.

The parents were at the barn doing chores and did not discover the fire until the interior of the house was a mass of flames. They made repeated efforts to enter the home by breaking in windows, but everywhere the flames beat them back. The house, a small structure, was destroyed. The bodies of the children were burned beyond recognition.

The children's names were Kenneth Van Court and Winifred Jewell Van Court, the latter the older of the two—Carthage Press.

KANSAS AGGIES GO BACK TO FARM

Fifty Per Cent of Students in Agriculture Department Become Practical Farmers.

Fifty per cent of the students who studied agriculture and completed the four-year course offered by the Kansas State Agricultural college from 1900 to 1920 became practical, sleeves-rolled-up farmers according to F. D. Farrell, dean of agriculture. All but fourteen per cent of the total number of 4-year graduates of the past twenty-one years are now engaged in some agricultural occupation.

"It must not be forgotten," Dean Farrell said, "that if the welfare of agriculture is to be safeguarded the services of men scientifically trained in it must be had in many other occupations besides farming—such occupations as teaching agriculture in high schools, investigational work, inspection work, the conduct of numerous activities associated with the disposal of farm products, the supplying of farm machinery, and the operation of creameries, cheese factories, condenseries, flour mills, fertilizer factories, etc. Of the men who have completed the 4-year course in agriculture during the past twenty years, 36 per cent are now engaged in these occupations."

From 100 to 250 young men have taken short course work at the college annually since 1900. Practically every one of these students has returned to the farm to put into practice what he learned at the college.

Judge Ben Lindsey to Jail.

Judge Ben Lindsey, the greatest juvenile judge in the country must go to jail in Denver for refusing to testify in a case involving a story a child told him. The case was appealed to the supreme court of the United States. The court ruled that the judge was in contempt of court. Judge Lindsey said he would rather go to jail than to betray a child.—Lamar Democrat.

Well-Preserved Water Pipes.

Wooden water pipes that were used from the time of the Revolution until the fire of 1872 to carry water into Boston have lately been unearthed and are found to be in a good state of preservation. A coin of the date 1808 in an almost perfect condition was found near one of the pipes, establishing, it would seem, the date at which the pipe was laid.

Cross Is Right.

"The original cross-examination," remarked the mournful philosopher, "must have been the third degree procedure Eve used on Adam when her husband remained away a large part of the night sitting up with a sick friend."

Miss Alma Greenwood Very Ill.

Miss Alma Greenwood, daughter of Wm. Greenwood and wife, has been very ill at Battle Creek, Mich., where she is a nurse. The disease is called encephalosis and is not at all common. Miss Greenwood was reported much better Saturday and able to sit up.

The following is taken from a Pittsburg, Kans., paper:

News was received Monday by Miss Grace Greenwood, normal training teacher, that her sister, Miss Alma Greenwood of Battle Creek, Mich., has the disease encephalosis, but at the present time is improving. Miss Alma Greenwood is a senior nurse in the Battle Creek Sanitarium.

Encephalosis is caused by a very virulent and active germ, which produces paralysis of all parts of the body. The patients, although completely paralyzed, seem to be perfectly conscious to the end.

In some cases, the disease is fatal within two days, and in other cases they may linger for months in a helpless state. One of the serious things about this disease is that the patients are paralyzed in such a way that they cannot speak, move or take nourishment in any way, but yet are conscious.

The disease at this time is prevalent in the country surrounding Battle Creek.

Salmon Worth Taking.

The biggest salmon ever taken in the fresh waters of New Hampshire recently was caught in Lake Sunapee. Its weight was 27 pounds. The largest previous salmon caught in Sunapee weighed about 15 pounds.

Only Popularity Worth While.

I wish popularity; but it is that popularity which follows, not that which is run after—it is that popularity which sooner or later never fails to do justice to the pursuit of noble ends by noble means.—Lord Mansfield.

Seamen's Watches.

In the time division of the 24 hours of the day into watches on board ships at sea there are five watches of four hours each and two of two hours, every watch having its distinctive name. Beginning at noon, the afternoon watch is from 12 m. to 4 p. m.; first dog watch, 4 p. m. to 6 p. m.; second dog watch, 6 p. m. to 8 p. m.; night watch, 8 p. m. to 12 midnight; middle watch, 12 midnight to 4 a. m.; morning watch, 4 a. m. to 8 a. m.; forenoon watch, 8 a. m. to noon.

Origin of Famous Quotations.

The henpecked man had just obtained a divorce from his first wife. He was heard to mutter, with the only fendish glee that had been his since the orange blossom episode, "And the first shall be last."

Reason for Program.

One of the churches has recently installed a motion picture machine. The Sunday service consists of an address by the pastor, followed by the pictures. The children grow impatient waiting for the pictures, and when I suggested to little Bonita that the pictures ought to be shown first and then permit the children to go home she promptly replied: "Yes; but then nobody would stay."—Exchange.

Started as Hairdresser at Three.

A Russian when arraigned in a London court the other day testified that he was a hairdresser by occupation and that he had followed it since he was three years of age.

Sufficient Excuse.

Jimmie's teacher asked him why he was late, and he replied: "Nobody waked up, 'cause the wakeup bell in the clock didn't ring."
